

Why is my child using a spacer?

By publisher

Created 06/16/2009 - 17:43

A spacer helps more medicine get into your child's lungs where it is needed. The spacer reduces the medicine that stays in your child's mouth that can cause unnecessary side effects, such as coughing or scratchy throat when your child uses a pump. Always use a spacer with your child.

Spacer

Spacer

spacer? › ‹ How does my child use a pump? up How does my child use a

Source URL: <http://www.asthmabasics.org/handbook/be-prepared-make-a-plan/why-is-my-child-using-a-spacer>